Tom Bradford, at the age of 37 and employed in the motorcycle industry, has narrowed his focus in life to include only those things that he's very passionate about. Family, friends, outdoor activities, and competing in motorsports. Tom's family consists of his lovely wife Theresa of eleven years, 7-year old son Quintin, and 3-year old daughter Paige. While staying busy with usual family activities, he also finds time to enjoy one of his true passions, hunting. Since the young age of 8, he enjoyed being outdoors in the woods, fields, or streams as he did with his father when he was younger.

Competing in high level motor sports (mainly the National Hot Rod Association (NHRA) Pro-Stock bike class) has continued to shape Tom to be the fierce, determined competitor that he is today. Some have said it's more than a passion for him, it's his life. Tom has drag raced motorcycles for more than 15-years, and is no stranger to success. This passion keeps him hungry and driven year-in and year-out.

You may think that Tom's cup of life is overflowing, but he's accustomed to life in the fast lane, and living everyday to its fullest. Whether you find him juggling things with his family, going 195-mph down the drag strip, or taking a nice morning hunt a field with his dog Chewy, this is where he's most at home!
